

HAKODATE TROPICAL BOTANICAL GARDEN

The botanical garden
which can always feel summer

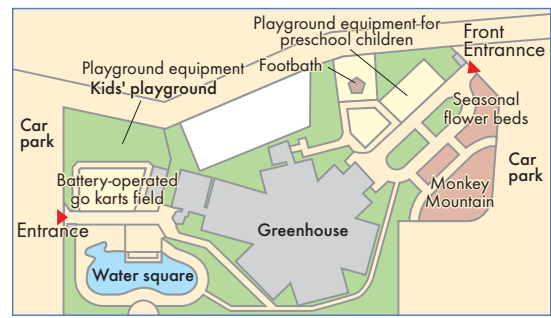

INFORMATION

- Open times / April-October: 09:30 to 18:00
November-March: 09:30 to 16:30
- Closed / December 29 to January 1
- Transport guide /
Tram/Streetcar : Take the one bound for Yunokawa,
25-minute trip from Hakodate Eki-mae stop.
Walk : 15 minutes after getting off at Yunokawa tram last stop.
Hakodate Bus : 20 minutes from Hakodate Eki-mae terminal to Nettai Shokubutsuen-mae stop.
Taxi : 15 minutes from JR Hakodate Station.
Car park available

● Admission fees

Category	Individual	Group(a minimum of 20)
Adult	300 yen	240 yen per person
Elementary and junior high school students	100 yen	80 yen per person

For enquiry, please contact to: 0138-57-7833

What you can see...

Gum tree

Hoop pine

Japanese Loquat

Orchid

Carp swimming in the pond

Battery-operated go karts

Traveler's Tree

Exotic flowers and trees in the south live in the northern city of Hakodate!

Observatory

The greenhouse is about 300 species, planted 3,000 of tropical plants, overlooking the plant from the middle of the observatory. Also, outside of the monkey mountain Japanese Monkeys to enter the hot spring only winter period is especially popular. (Japanese Monkeys entering the year tour possible. Hot Springs from December 1 to May Golden Week)

Japanese Monkeys warm up in the hot spring

There are playground equipment and seasonal flower beds in the forecourt. Guests can also enjoy a footbath of witholding unique.

Footbath

Front garden of playground

A variety of flowers are in bloom all the year round in the greenhouse - Bougainvillea, Hibiscus and Angel Trumpet.

Bougainvillea garden

Hibiscus

Angel Trumpet

Ping-pong tree's flower

Ping-pong tree's fruit

The greenhouse is the habitat of trees with interesting names, too — Breadfruit Trees, Ping-pong Trees, Chewing Gum Trees, and others.

Bananas and lemons grow in the greenhouse, too.

Banana fruit

Lemon fruit

Bird of Paradise

Opuntia

Passion Flower

Crown of Thorns

Beside the greenhouse is a water square, which becomes a popular and lively place in summertime with many children.

Water square